License Plate Instructions

You must be a REGULAR or LIFE member of a Marine Corps League Detachment in New Jersey. MEMBERS AT LARGE AND ASSOCIATE members do not qualify.

NEW MCL PLATES

YOUR DETACHEMENT PAYMASTER HAS THE MOTOR VEHICLE FORMS. THERE ARE NO FORMS THAT CAN BE DOWNLOADED. Enclose a photocopy of your Vehicle Registration and your National MCL Membership I.D Card along with your check and application. Paperwork cannot be submitted to the Motor Vehicle Commission if it is not complete as per instructions. PLEASE FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS ENTIRELY.

All vehicles must be registered in the Marine Corps League member's name. You can apply for more than one set of plates, as long as the vehicle registration is in the member's name. You must have plates before you can obtain MCL plates.

You must continue to renew your membership in the Marine Corps League Detachment each year by August as per National Administrative Procedures Section 7030 – GOOD STANDING - to retain your plates. If applying in June, July or August you must have your dues paid for the following year.

REPLACEMENT OF LOST OR DAMAGED MCL PLATES

You can obtain replacement plates with the same number at a cost of $20.00. Make check payable to MCL Dept. of NJ. Send a copy of your registration and membership card along with the check to the Plate Chairman. You can retain your current plate number as long as you did not return your current Marine Corps League license plates to the Motor Vehicle Commission.

There are no MCL plates for motorcycle or commercial vehicles.

Make check for $40.00 payable to MCL-DEPT OF NJ. Each set of plates cost $40.00. Keep this in mind if ordering more than one set.
